 and committed yourself into the shopping street that once was outside the city walls that once stood outside the city walls. This place and this street have changed but there are still some very old houses.

Look carefully facades and find one that has 1656 engraved on the lintel of one of its windows. ...77.✍ The house was close to that of a painter nicknamed "the painter of cathedrals". Do you know his name? Decrypts this charade and get the answer (Be careful answers in this charade are in French):

You can swim in my first
 The rain that falls is made of my second
 My third is the verb "go" in the present tense (3rd person singular)
 The poor pull the devil by my fourth
 And my all is a French painter who lived in Redon (1874 - 1955)
